HUERTA'S REPLY IS GIVEN OUT

Mexico's Foreign Sec'y
Says Suggestions Are Attractive

EVADES DIRECT REPLY

Explains That His Country's Constitution Prevents Huerta from Being Candidate at the National Election.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Mexico City, Aug. 28.—The full text of the answer of Federico Gamboa, Mexican secretary of state for foreign affairs to the second note sent him by John Lind, President Wilson's confidential agent in Mexico, under date of August 25, was made public here today. It contains several interesting clauses. In one paragraph the Mexican diplomat quotes Mr. Lind's statement that President Wilson said "if Mexico acts immediately and favorably upon the foregoing suggestions" would express to American bankers assurances that the government of the United States would look with favor upon an immediate loan to Mexico.

Answering this Senor Gamboa begs to be excused from a direct reply for the time being, other than to say that this suggestion appears to be an attractive antecedent proposal to the fact that Mexico should renounce a right which incontrovertibly upholds the country at a time when the dignity of the nation is at stake.

"I believe," he adds, "that there are not loans enough to induce those charged by the law to maintain that dignity to permit it to be lessened."

In another part of his lengthy note, referring to the insistence of President Wilson that Victoriano Huerta bind himself not to be a candidate in the October elections, Senor Gamboa quotes from the constitutional articles of the Mexican republic to prove that under these regulations "the secretary of state in charge of the executive power shall not be eligible to the office of either president or vice president when the elections shall take place."

The provision, Senor Gamboa intimates, prevents Huerta from being a candidate.

All the documents connected with John Lind's mission to Mexico City were published today in the Diario Oficial, the Mexican government organ in their proper chronological order. They consist of the following: The original instructions given to John Lind by President Wilson which were quoted yesterday in the president's message to congress in Washington.

The reply to John Lind made by Federico Gamboa, Mexican secretary for foreign affairs, on August 16, which was published in Washington yesterday contemporaneously with the second note presented by John Lind to Federico Gamboa on August 25.

The Mexican secretary of state's reply to this dated August 26.

MILL BOSS AND GUARD CAPTAIN UNDER ARREST

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Steubenville, O., Aug. 28.—As a result of the rioting at the Pope tinplate mill last night, Mayor George W. McLeish today had warrants issued for the arrest of John T. Lloyd, assistant superintendent of the mill, E. M. Mensor, manager, and John Bradley, captain of the mill guards. Others may be arrested, also, is the attempt to place the responsibility for the shooting by the mill guards of a number of strikers, two of whom are expected to die. One, Joseph Miller, is not expected to live through the day.

Early today four guards were arrested in a clash with police and are being held without bond. They were found along the river bank, armed with revolvers and rifles.

O. M. Wier, vice president of the company, declared today that strikers should have been summoned to handle the situation long ago. City officials say they can preserve order if the strike has been in progress several weeks.

Two thousand strikers paraded to the mill last night. A threat to attack the mill was answered with a volley from the mill guards.

IMPERATOR IS DAMAGED BY BLAZE

One Officer Suffocated in Fighting Flames On Ship In Dock

FOREIGNERS IN PANIC

Vessel Will Sail as Usual and Damage Will Be Repaired at Sea—Heavy Loss in Provisions.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Aug. 28.—The steamship Imperator, largest vessel afloat, was swept by fire early today as she lay at her dock in Hoboken with her crew and 1,131 steerage passengers aboard. Second Officer Gobrecht, who led the crew into the hold to fight the flames, was cut off from his men, enveloped in a cloud of smoke and suffocated. His body was found an hour afterwards, untouched by fire and brought ashore. Seaman Otto Stump was overcome by smoke and revived at a hospital but is in a serious condition.

A fleet of fire fighting craft, augmented by apparatus on shore surrounded the ship and poured tons of water into her hold. When the fire was checked at 8 o'clock the great vessel had listed fifteen degrees. The small army in the steerage aroused from their sleep by the crackling of flames, rushed, panic stricken for the pier. Most of them spent the remainder of the night huddled in discomfort, at the shore end on the pier. None of the steerage passengers had been inspected by the customs or health authorities. Because of this armed guards surrounded them. The immigration authorities rushed them to Ellis Island at the earliest possible moment this afternoon.

The great ship was dark with all on board asleep save the officers on watch, when smoke, ascending from the provision room, was discovered simultaneously by a seaman on deck watch and a petty officer on the bridge. Almost at the same moment, the crackling of flames was heard in steerage quarters. A quiet alarm was sounded. Commander Bussell, command-in-chief of the vessel, was among the first to respond. The crew of 1,150 men were in their places within a minute. The complex fire fighting apparatus of the vessel was set in motion. Every compartment was ordered closed, except those which it was necessary to leave open for the steerage passengers to get ashore.

For three-quarters of an hour, the crew fought the fire with only the superior fire apparatus. Then, losing heart of success the Hoboken fire department was notified and a general alarm was sounded.

In the first sharp skirmish with the flames Second Officer Herman Gobrecht and Seaman Otto Stumpf, caught in the withering breath of a belch of flame, were cut off from the floor by which they had entered. They companions were driven back to open up. Although they stormed the flames again and again, the wall of smoke kept them from rescuing Gobrecht and Stumpf, when the fire was checked the bodies were found and taken ashore. Stumpf was thought to be dead, but revived later after being rushed to a hospital.

The dining saloon of the second cabin suffered the greatest damage from smoke. The handsome appointments of the saloon were a wreck when the smoke cleared away. Despite the reinforcement of the firemen, the flames gained headway. A tug steaming slowly down the river roused the waterfront with its siren. Fireboats from New York, a fleet of tugs and another battery of fire engines from Hoboken rushed to the pier. A heavy cloud of smoke swung lazily over the vessel and settled down on the water.

A dozen tugs floating nearby, were held in readiness to tow the ship out to midstream as the flames threatened momentarily to destroy her. With fifty streams playing hundreds of tons of water on the fire every minute the flames lost heart and the vessel began to list. At 8 o'clock there were only two streams on the blaze and it was practically extinguished.

The second cabin presented a dismal appearance when the smoke lifted. Its walls and gilded fittings were smudged and dark, its costly rugs and carpets sodden. Its furniture scorched, blackened and broken. Only painstaking examination could reveal the extent to which the vessel had suffered.

New Foreign Affairs Secretary of Mexico, Who Has Been Dealing With Envoy Lind

Federico Gamboa, new foreign affairs secretary of Mexico, who has conducted the negotiations with John Lind, President Wilson's special envoy to Mexico, may become provisional president if Victoriano Huerta should be induced to resign. Gamboa is not a wealthy man. He is best known as a novelist and diplomat. He is now fifty-two years of age, and he made his fame writing "Santa," a rather racy novel. Another of his works is "Regeneration. Eight years ago he was first secretary of the Mexican embassy in Washington. Later he was minister to Guatemala and then to Chile. He then became assistant secretary of state under Secretary Crel, and was minister to Belgium, when he was called back recently by President Huerta to become foreign secretary.

City and County Officials Demand Deed For Grounds Occupied by Country Club

The legal battle for possession of the so-called permanent encampment ground west of Newark is now on, and the decision will rest with the court. The county commissioners and the city council claim that the city and the county are the rightful owners of the ground, and should have possession. On the other hand, the Board of Trade holds the deed to the property and the Licking Country club has possession of the ground under a lease given by the Board of Trade.

At a meeting of the city council and the county commissioners Wednesday evening, a resolution was adopted to instruct the sheriff to take possession of the ground unless the Board of Trade transfers the property to the city and county before next Tuesday, September 24.

This brings the matter into court as it is taken for granted that the Board of Trade will resist the action. Over twenty years ago this beautiful tract of 123 acres, embracing the famous octagon and circle mounds, was purchased and given to the state of Ohio. A small private subscription was raised and about $23,000 was advanced by the old Franklin bank to pay for the property. Subsequently the city and Newark township issued bonds in the sums of thirteen and ten thousand dollars respectively, after approval of the voters at the polls and the proceeds of the sale went to pay back the money loaned by the Franklin bank. The ground was then given to the state for military encampment purposes and a condition of the gift was that should the state cease to use the ground for encampment of the soldiers, the ground should revert to the Board of Trade. A few years ago the militiamen tired of coming to one place year after year and finally the ground was abandoned. The Board of Trade took possession but for lack of funds the ground soon became dilapidated. Part of the land was farmed. In 1906 the Board of Trade went to Columbus and had the legislature transfer the deed to the Board of Trade as provided in the original contract. A few years afterward the Country club was organized and the club proposed leasing the ground. The Board entered into a 20-year lease providing for annual rental of $650, all of which was to be expended in permanent improvements on the ground, the idea being to beautify and preserve the ground, trees, and earthworks and to make the place into a public park at a future date when funds could be secured for the proper care for the place. The club expended $12,000 on a club house and each year the Board of Trade has expended the rental money on permanent improvements. This year all of the trees were "doctored" so as to preserve them indefinitely.

Petersboro, Ont., Aug. 28.—Four persons or more were killed and several injured in the collapse today of the J. C. Turnbull company's store at George and Simcoe streets. Weakening of the walls, due to alterations in progress, caused the collapse. A hundred workmen, clerks and shoppers went down in the crash.

The bodies of three women and one man, all unidentified, were found in the ruins shortly after noon. It was believed that the debris still held the bodies of other victims. Eight persons injured in the collapse have been sent to hospitals or their homes.

The scene of the accident was a corner building, recently vacated, adjoining the main establishment of the Turnbull company. The alterations in progress were for the purpose of opening the walls between this store and that adjoining.

MEXICAN SITUATION IMPROVED

President Wilson Encouraged Over Developments
Following His Message

GENERAL WOOD READY

To Use Army to Enforce
Uncle Sam's Neutrality
Policy—Consular Officials
Urge the Americans to Leave.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Aug. 28.—After an early conference with Secretary Bryan and Chairman Bacon of the senate foreign relations committee, President Wilson let it be known that he believed the situation in Mexico was encouraging.

The president thinks things are changing in Mexico City and something tangible will soon be known. There was no evidence here early today that the Huerta government had agreed to the American plan but the disposition of the Mexican administration to withdraw some of its proposals has encouraged the belief in official circles that the president's message is having a good effect in Mexico.

Should Mr. Lind deem it advisable to return to Mexico City to continue in person the negotiations he is conducting by telegraph from Vera Cruz he has authority from Washington to do so. It is considered quite probable that he will go.

This was the Mexican situation in brief today:

Huerta has withdrawn his request for an exchange of ambassadors and asked that the present diplomatic status continue until after Mexican elections in October. By some that was interpreted as a concession.

A request for recognition as the "constitutional government interim" which was connected with the proposal for an exchange of ambassadors was, however, interpreted by many officials as a practical reiteration of the original stand of the Huerta government.

Senor Gamboa, minister of foreign affairs in Mexico, pointed out that the demand of the United States for the elimination of Huerta would be met by a provision of the Mexican constitution which makes a provisional president ineligible to reelection. The Washington government, however, the Washington assurance more definite. John Lind, President Wilson's envoy was authorized to return to Mexico City from Vera Cruz, if, in his discretion, it seemed advisable.

It is believed here he will go and that negotiations over some of the disputed points, principally the retirement of Huerta may be reopened.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan regarded the situation as encouraging and indicated they expected some change in the attitude at Mexico City, after the president's address before congress yesterday was digested.

American consular officers throughout Mexico were rounding up Americans, advising them to leave Mexico and preparing means to aid them in doing so.

Major General Wood, chief of staff of the army, returned to Washington to take personal charge of any military measures to carry out the president's determination for strict neutrality.

SHIPE SEASON OPENS SEPT. 1

The shipe season opens next Monday. On that day any local hunter is permitted by law to shoulder his gun, pocket his license and above all pin his hunter's badge on his breast and sally forth thus heavily armed for the extermination of the shipe which are supposed to infest the marsh and woodlot at this season.

The state law says that we may kill shore birds and coots as well as shipe, but the federal law protects all but the shipe and the rail so the hunter must satisfy himself with these elusive birds. And the shipe and the rail are not so rare in this county as the hunter might imagine.

In any wet woodland or grassy marshland we may find a shipe in September and nearly every area of swamp land has its little colony of rails. Hunters are also permitted to kill the greater and lesser yellowlegs, species of the shipe family, but rarely do we find them in this locality.

"Thin as a rail" is an old expression which refers to the little game bird by that name. There are two species found commonly in Licking county, the Virginia and the Sora rails. Both these birds are compressed so that they may pass easily between the reeds in the marsh. Their peculiar chuckling and croaking is the chief evidence we have of the presence of these shy marsh lovers. When hunted and pressed either of these birds will fly above the cattails and other swamp growth and give the hunter a quick shot before he flutters back to his hiding place. When we get his body in hand we find there is scarcely anything of it and it is indeed thin as a rail.

Entirely nerveless is the gunner who can take a pop shot at a ragged jack snipe and bring him down. This funny bird lies so close to the ground and his striped brown back harmonizes so accurately with his surroundings that it is impossible to see him even if you know the exact spot in which he is hiding. Approach ever so carefully, gun ready and still he scares you nearly out of your wits. Right at your feet he rises with a loud and harsh cry of "Jack! Jack!" and away goes his ragged body in a zigzag flight, which leaves you with your mouth open in astonishment and then you remember that you have forgotten to shoot.

And then there is the woodcock, or "hog-sucker," another species of snipe. With the eyes of an owl set in the back of his head he surveys the woodland on all sides while with a long bill he probes in the ground for a worm. This proboscis is armed with a flexible tip and once far down in the mud he feels around for the victim, a nice big juicy worm. He, too, is colored like the ground and hard to see. The woodcock may run on the ground, or escape or take to flight on the whistling wings, not so hard to hit as his cousin, the jack snipe.

Just to prove that there are snipes in Licking county go out to some swampy land in April and see a big woodcock make love to his mate. In that season they take to the wet open ground. In the evening about 6 o'clock in April nearly every piece of soggy grassland is full of this lovelomaking. The male bird turns about in the grass and makes a harsh call at regular intervals. Then he rises and like a big hunchback swings upward in a great spiral till he is lost to sight. Then he twitters to his mate and makes a sheer drop to the ground lacking but a few feet of being dashed to pieces before he spreads his wings and gracefully alights to begin all over again.

MUTT AND JEFF.
"Mutt and Jeff in Panama, is the title of the new production Gus Hill has given to Bud Fisher's famous cartoon picture play, which re-appears at the Auditorium Saturday, Sept. 6. The play is surely funnier than ever and with a bigger and better cast of performers than when seen here last season, if newspaper comment from other cities can be relied on.

"THE DIVORCE QUESTION."
The National Play company's presentation of Wm. Anthony McGuire's intensely interesting argument against divorce will be seen at the Auditorium Thursday, Sept. 3. The play treats the question of divorce as an individual, social and ethical problem, portraying a strong, vital, true situation of life as a premise to an argument which clearly demonstrates the utility of divorce as a means to social progress, inasmuch as it leads to the disintegration of the family upon which rests our entire social structure, deprives children of the right to their parents and tends to foster that undeniably immoral and hurtful institution—polygamy.

AUDITORIUM SEASON OPENS.
The Paul Gilmore Players will make their first appearance in "The Havoc" at the Auditorium Monday, Sept. 1, Labor day, matinee and evening. Mr. H. S. Sheldon's powerful three-act play was one of the reigning successes on Broadway for one entire year. Playgoers will remember the Paul Gilmore company's powerful acting in "The Mummy" and the "Humming Bird" and will undoubtedly welcome an opportunity to witness "The Havoc." One critic has put himself on record as having said that the Paul Gilmore workers in "The Havoc" have the power and will do more good from a moral standpoint than a million Billy Sundays. The seat sale opens Friday at 9 a. m.

SIGNER LIVED IN CATHEDRAL SAYS WITNESS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, O., Aug. 28.—Charles A. Corey, an examiner in the state dairy and food department of the state, today gave it as his opinion at the hearing before Secretary of State Graves that 75 per cent. of the names on referendum petitions filed from Hamilton county are frauds. He testified that he found that five of the signers were registered from the Hamilton county jail.

Otto M. Elzmann, state examiner of stationary engines, testified that when he investigated the address of a man whose name was signed to a petition he found it was at St. Peter's cathedral. He also found that the names of a number of dead men were on petitions.

J. Bon Grause, a state building and loan examiner, found that vacant lots, houses without numbers and business houses were the addresses of persons on petitions turned over to him to investigate. Nothing was known of the signers at the places he visited and where they were supposed to reside.

P. J. McHugh, in charge of the free employment office at Cincinnati, produced affidavits of two physicians declaring that they did not sign petitions on which their names appeared. It was asserted that their names were forged. He also found many whose names were on the petitions who declared that they did not sign.

Jay Birch of the state labor commissioner's office, said he was satisfied from his investigation that most of the Hamilton county petitions were spurious. He said that he found that addresses of a number of signers were at uncompleted buildings.

PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS TO HAVE COURSE IN BUSINESS TRAINING

Rev. Father B. M. O'Boylan as superintendent of the parochial school of St. Francis de Sales, has decided this year upon a new departure in the school work. A commercial college has been established in connection with the regular school course, and those desirous of entering the commercial department in preference to the general high school work can do so.

This department will in future be separated from the high school and be devoted to the subjects exclusively that its name implies—a thorough course in shorthand, typewriting, English composition, practical arithmetic, bookkeeping and everything that goes to give a sound business training and fit the pupil for the profession to which he aspires.

The course will extend to from one to two years, according to the number of studies taken, and the ability of the student. Besides the subjects above alluded to there will be lectures on Commercial Law, History, Banking and Character. Only those who have successfully passed the eighth grade or who can give sufficient evidence that they can succeed in this department will be eligible, and they must be registered not later than Monday, September 1st.

Heretofore a partial commercial course was given in connection with the high school studies, but it was decided that this was impracticable, besides unfair to those who could not afford to spend four years at school when one or two years would be sufficient to fit them for a business career. The number of studies now required for the liberal professions, before a pupil of our high school is permitted to enter a university, requires at least four years of high school work, but a commercial course does not need that.

To the Voters of Newark:

Owing to my recent illness, I have been unable to get around and talk to as many as I would wish, of my candidacy for councilman-at-large, so I take this method of asking your support at the coming primaries and at the election, if I am nominated. I point with pride to my former record as councilman and I pledge myself, if nominated and elected, to use every honest effort, as in the past, in furthering the best interests of the city. GREAT FREE ATTRACTIONS LABOR DAY

The General Labor Day committees will make final arrangements for the days celebration at the meeting this week. The most novel and attractive free amusements ever presented will be in operation all day and evening. Two parades, band concerts, and contests of skill, for which prizes will be awarded, are sure to draw and hold the people.

The committee has labored long and earnestly, without compensation, to assure the success of the celebration, and has spared nothing in the way of time, trouble or expense to bring a large attendance from neighboring cities and villages, and the citizens of Newark should show their appreciation by remaining in the city and assist in making this a record breaking day, both in attendance and enjoyment. Stay at home on this one day of the year and encourage those who have worked so long and faithfully to prepare a program of events guaranteed to amuse and please all.

Don't forget the grand parade at 10 a. m. and fantastic carnival at 3:15 sharp. Free amusements all day.

MANY PICNICS ARE HELD TODAY

Today might have been generally designated as "picnic day," for at noon there was a general exodus of picnic parties to the various parks and groves surrounding the city.

At 10 o'clock Thursday morning a large number of members of Newark Lodge, 391 B. P. O. E. left for Beach Island to hold a stag outing. Cars to Buckeye Lake were also crowded with Ohio Electric employees and their families who are enjoying a picnic at the summer resort today.

This afternoon, however, the Knights of Pythias will picnic at Moundbuilders Park and this evening will dance at the Park pavilion. A Licking county temperance rally also attracted many to spend the day at the historic park grounds.

A large number of the members of the Knight of Columbus went to the McCabe farm west of Newark where a big outing was held during the day, and many small picnic parties are spending the day at Picnic Rock. Several family reunions have also attracted many to country homes.

Another Indictment Against Housefly

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

St. Louis, Aug. 28.—Announcement was made today that tests conducted at St. Louis university by the research committee of the St. Louis Medical association indicated that the fly was a necessary agent in the transmission from animal to animal of a disease that greatly resembles infantile paralysis.

Many of the symptoms of infantile paralysis have not been discovered in the infected animals but the similarity is sufficiently striking to incline the investigators to believe that the diseases are identical.

Waters Knocked From Freight Train

T. M. Waters, of 131 Buena Vista street, a well known B. & O. conductor was seriously injured while on his train at Mt. Vernon Wednesday evening.

Mr. Waters was knocked from his train by a penstock, and in falling struck his head and shoulders. He was brought to his home in Newark late Wednesday evening and Dr. C. F. Legge was called. It was found that he had suffered a contused wound on the back of the head and had sustained serious bruises about the head and shoulders.

MR. JOHNSON TO MANAGE HOUSE IN CLEVELAND

Manager F. Johnson of the Auditorium theatre has resigned his position in this city and leaves Sunday to take over the management of the new Metropolitan theatre in Cleveland.

Owing to illness in his family and a desire to be located near them, Mr. Johnson has his connection with the Metropolitan theatre, and assumes the management of the Cleveland theatre, which is controlled by Harry Daniels of Keith's Hippodrome.

Mr. Johnson has been located in Newark for more than a year and a half and has been one of the most successful managers the city has had. His business-like attitude has won him hundreds of friends who regret his leaving the city.

The new theatre are assumed on Monday morning and the Cleveland house opens September 8. It is located on Euclid near Fifty-fifth street, and opens with a 20 weeks' run of the Vaughan Glaser stock company. It is one of the most attractive theatres in Cleveland and the Vaughan Glaser company is always a big attraction in the lake city.

The manager for the Auditorium has not been named, three men being under consideration—Edgar Heely of the William A. Brady interests of New York, Fred Ross of Columbus, or Harry Hamilton of Canton. Harry Reese, the present treasurer, will remain in Newark.

COMMISSIONERS TAKE MORE TIME ON PIKE BONDS

Although State Highway Commissioner James Markoe was in Newark personally Wednesday to help to swing the resolution providing $140,000 of the national pike improvement, under the federal and state aid proposals, county commissioners have balked at the crucial point. They failed to act on the resolution to appropriate Licking county's share of the fund, and determined to further consider the matter of expending the amount.

It was the impression generally that Licking county had stamped its approval on the plan to improve this county's thirty miles of the proposed coast-to-coast highway, but it develops that it was only the preliminary resolution which passed a few weeks ago.

CHARGE WITHDRAWN.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, Aug. 28.—The police today withdrew the formal charge of murder which they made late last night against Mrs. Mary Sharpe following the finding of the body of her husband, Joseph Sharpe, formerly of New Orleans, in a West Side apartment house, where the Sharps had a furnished room. Mrs. Sharpe was found in an adjoining room with blood issuing from wounds on her head and body.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Foreign Matter in the Eyes.

Foreign bodies, such as particles of dust, bits of steel and emery, frequently get into the eyes. On a windy day dust from the street is liable to blow into the eyes and at once set up an irritation. The natural tendency is to rub the eye, and this only adds fuel to the fire and causes more irritation. In many cases if the eye is left alone for a few minutes the irritating material will be washed out by the flow of tears which its presence causes. If not washed out by tears it usually may be found under the upper eyelid, and its removal is not a difficult task for one who has had some practice.

The patient should be directed to look downward, then the upper eyelid should be everted. This can be done by pressing a match or small pencil against the lid and then, catching hold of the eyelashes, rolling the edge of the lid back. Usually this will bring the foreign body into view, and it can be removed readily by touching it with a bit of cotton or the corner of a clean handkerchief.

In a few cases the foreign body lodges under the lower lid. From this position it can be removed readily by causing the patient to look upward and then everting the lower lid.

Good evening is so essential to comfort and success that one never should neglect the eyes. Pain and redness are signs of irritation. If not due to a foreign body that can be removed a physician should be consulted and the cause removed. The irritation may be due to disease germs which have entered the eye. One kind is so virulent that it can destroy the eyesight in a few days.

WILL INCREASE INCOME TAX ON LARGER FORTUNES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Aug. 28.—An insurgent movement among Democratic Senators that threatened to break party lines on the income tax was headed off by the leaders today by an agreement to revise the tariff bill so as to levy a heavier tax on the incomes from large fortunes. The insurgent leaders began with a demand for a party conference and claimed the support of 27 Democrats out of fifty in the Senate in support of an increased tax. They finally agreed to withdraw their demand for a special caucus and the question was taken up in a party conference tomorrow or Saturday. It is understood that Democratic leaders have agreed to a revision of the income tax section, so that extra tax on incomes of more than $50,000 will be five per cent. with an increase reaching ten per cent. on incomes of a half million dollars. The bill as it now stands only provides three per cent. tax above $100,000. The present rates on income between $20,000 and $100,000 also will be increased.

The agreement to redraft the bill came after Senator Vardaman left the party ranks and voted for Senator La Follette's amendment to increase the rates and Senators Keck, Thompson and Ashhurst had threatened to take similar action.

In nearly 200 schools in Ireland instruction is carried on in both Irish and English, as part of the program to revive interest in Gaelic language and literature.

Ned Putnam, Charles Starnett, Malcolm Rank, Gaylord Mercer, Harry Douce, Dale McNamara, Wayne Anderson, Fred Wolverton, Frederick Hall, Theodor Neal, George Brennan and Donald Vail.

BOWERS-McMILLEN.

On Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock was solemnized the marriage of Miss Mary C. McMullen to Mr. Harry C. Bowers. The officiating clergyman was Rev. W. D. Both the young people are residents of Fredonia and will make their future home there.

OVERHEARD ON OLYMPUS

by Barbara Boyd

YOU'LL soon be leaving us, won't you, Persephone?" said Tithonus, who, though he had been changed into a grass hopper by his tickle though lovely wife Aurora, still kept in touch with the doings on Olympus. "My good times, too, are about over for the season," he went on, finding some comfort in the fact that another was in the same predicament as himself.

Persephone shuddered. She wished Tithonus had not recalled the fact that she must soon go into winter quarters in the lower regions. A melancholy wind that was sighing through the trees made the outlook seem all the more dreary.

"Well," said Tithonus, trying to cheer up, "you and I have one satisfaction that the rest of the crowd up here know nothing about."

"What is it?" inquired Persephone. She didn't feel just then there was much satisfaction in anything.

"The crowd up here," replied Tithonus, waving one wing around to indicate the absent gods and goddesses, "are a pleasure-loving bunch. They think of nothing but having a good time. Life's all golf tournaments and motor races and banquets. They never think of anything but enjoying themselves."

"What's the use, since they don't have to?" replied Persephone. "Ah, but you never know what may come," said Tithonus, nodding his head in a sage way he had admired in Aristotle. "Look at you and look at me! Whoever would have thought trouble would have overtaken us in the way it has?"

Persephone sighed. "Yet it has been good for us," went on Tithonus, who had embraced the doctrines of the optimists.

"How so?" asked Persephone, listlessly. Being done good by the trouble route didn't appeal to her particularly.

"Take the matter of love, for instance. Love that is all spring and summer is like spring flowers. It hasn't much stamina. The first chill winds crumple it all up. But love that has gone through trials and tribulations, that has had a touch of winter, so to speak, is like the hardy autumn flowers. It comes through wind and rain and a nip of frost all the more brilliant. And it is the same with all the other experiences of life. Now you and I have had these trials and tribulations. And I'm willing to bet we've a hundred percent more character and more real backbone than the rest of the Olympus gang. You've a lot more courage and patience, I know, than you would have had, if you didn't have to put up with old Pluto six months of the year. And as for me, the turn-downs Aurora has given me would have made most men a misanthrope and a woman-hater. But I have not permitted them to affect me that way. I have risen above them, and I am better for them."

"It seems to me a kind of back-handed method of self-improvement," observed Persephone.

"I don't say I'm one of those who go out hunting trouble to show how much good I can extract from it. But I do say when it swoops down upon one, like it has upon you and me, that one should let it develop him, as it has you and me. There are compensations in all things, you know. And if we do not have as easy a time as the rest of them up here we have the satisfaction of knowing we have much more character."

And making a sound like the busy side of a buzz-saw, Tithonus went his way.

DIAMOND THIEVES WORK.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cleveland, Aug. 28.—The police are investigating what they claim to be a systematic robbery of diamond selling concerns here. In the last few weeks, they say, more than $8,000 worth of gems have been obtained by thieves. Today it was stated that clues lead to an East End house used as a "fence." Arrests may follow soon.

THE DINING ROOM.

"Some time and thought should be given to the manner in which the table is set and the methods used in serving meals, as well as to the preparation of food," says Mabel Miskimen and Josephine Matthews of the college of agriculture, in a new extension bulletin just issued. "Suggestions for the Dining Room." "The first duties in the home are to the family," they continue, "so all our efforts to make the table look pretty and serving the meals in an attractive way should not be reserved for company dinners. Guests usually appreciate a home where they are taken in as a member of the family and where a great deal of extra effort and worry on the part of the hostess is not evident. Because people feel that they must do extra things for company often places on hospitality a damper which cannot be concealed and even the welcome carries with it an expression that takes away its warmth." The bulletin which is well illustrated also shows how the planning of meals, keeping of a neat table, arrangement of the cover and the serving at the table may be made an economical and enjoyable practice in the ordinary household and at the same time insure more wholesome and satisfactory food for the family. It is concluded with some valuable suggestions concerning table manners. This bulletin may be had free of charge by addressing A. B. Graham, College of Agriculture, Ohio State University, Columbus, O.

Modern Witches.

Centuries have passed since "witches" were executed in England, but in very recent times they have suffered physical harm. Dr. Jessopp knew a Norfolk man who died in 1883, and in the sixties had joined with his two brothers in a night expedition to the house of an old woman. They took her out of bed, and in the presence of half a dozen other people threw her into a pond, "where she would infallibly have been drowned, but that some who were not so mad as the rest cried out that she was sinking to the bottom and must be saved." The conclusive evidence against her was that she kept a black cat and wore a black silk dress on Sundays. In 1882 there was still alive, and master in an elementary school, one who, as a young man, had scratched a "witch's" arms till the blood poured down, because she had "overlooked" him, and only so could his health be restored.—London Chronicle.

Compulsory Illuminations.

The west end of London is always ablaze with lights on the evening of the king's birthday, but no living Londoner can claim to have seen a general illumination of the metropolis. In his "Recollection and Reflection" J. R. Planche writes: "The last general illumination of London was that celebrating the battle of Waterloo. Now there are more beautiful displays, but this one was really general. Not a window in the smallest court but had its candle stuck in a lump of clay, while in houses of more pretension one blazed in every pane. Mobs paraded the metropolis from Hyde park corner to Whitechapel with cries of 'Light up' and smashed every window that did not swiftly display a dip in answer to the summons."

An Advertisement Is a Challenge

By HOLLAND.

THE man who advertises is fearless. He courts the light. He dares all and sundry to put him to the test. "This is what I offer," he says in effect. "Can you beat it? Can you do better elsewhere? Make comparisons and then do business with me only if you find it is to your advantage."

There is nothing hidden about the advertiser. He stands up for himself, for his goods, for his reputation, for his town. He wants everybody to know him, to know his methods of business and his manner of treating customers.

This makes it safe to do business with him. Having spent much money making his name known, he cannot afford to have it tarnished, and he will go much more than halfway in an effort to correct a misunderstanding that is not of his making. He wants to tell more than the bare truth, to do more than what is really square.

INSTANT POSTUM

It is pure and made entirely of Northern wheat and the juice of Southern sugar-cane. Postum is a genuine food-drink—rich in Nature's phosphates, and contains no drug whatever.

Postum comes in two forms.

Regular Postum (must be boiled).

Instant Postum requires no boiling, but is made instantly by stirring a level teaspoonful in a cup of hot water with cream and sugar to taste.

Experiment until you get it to suit your taste, then have it always made that way. Made right, Postum has a delightful flavor, resembling high-grade Java.

If coffee don't agree, suppose you leave it off ten days and try Postum.

Drink it instead of coffee.

"There's a Reason"

HIGH SCHOOL LECTURE COURSE STARTS OCT. 17

The High school lecture course for the season 1932-1933 will consist of eight numbers, all especially high class. The course will excel those of previous years. The three musical numbers will be very attractive. No entertainment will be given on Saturday evening or during the holiday season, thus making the dates satisfactory.

The opening number, the Collegiate Quartette of New York City, on the evening of October 17 will set a high pace as this is the most expensive entertainment on the course. The mixed quartet of artists have appeared as soloists with the leading orchestras and oratorio societies of the country.

The second number, Hon. Victor Murdock, lecturer, will appear October 31. Mr. Murdock is the insurgent leader of congress and is an orator second only to Bryan.

The Boston Octette, which was here last year, and which pleased everyone, will appear again November 19. The personnel has been somewhat changed for the purpose of presenting a new and even more elaborate program, demanding the service of a quartette and sextette of mixed voices.

Lincoln Wirt, the Arctic explorer, lecturer and author, will tell his experiences of the Frozen North, January 12.

Miss Sarah Mildred Willmer, reader, comes February 2 and it is not too much to say that in the quality of her work she now ranks in the Lyceum where Sarah Bernhardt ranks in the theatrical profession. Her dramatization of the great Christian play, "The Sign of the Cross," has been pronounced by critics to be the nearest approach to the authors interpretation ever produced.

The sixth number is Dr. Hugh Black, one of the greatest preachers in the Congregational church. He comes February 19.

The Schumann String Quintet March 16, is the last musical number and is composed of rare musicians. The organizer and player of first violin for nine years played first violin in the Thomas orchestra. To require a symphonic effect they carry with them a specially constructed reed organ. To create added interest the Quintet gives its program a setting of historic costumes.

The last lecturer, Albert Edward Wiggam, the apostle of efficiency, will give his celebrated illustrated lecture on heredity. A million people have paid to hear his lectures. This number will be April 6.

The Best Pain Killer.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin will immediately remove all pain. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me. says: "It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c at F. D. Hall's drug store, Newark, O.

AFTER VACATION PINK YOUR DISCOLORED SKIN

From Broadway Weekly. Women returning from the seashore with browned, reddened or freckled complexions will be wise in immediately taking up the metacized skin treatment. Weatherbeaten skin has been come off, for no amount of "beautifying" will ever make such pretty to look at. The surest, safest, easiest way to shed the discolored cuticle is with the treatment suggested. Put the wax on before retiring, as you would cold cream, and rinse it off next morning with warm water. Minute particles of scurf skin will peel off day by day, gradually showing the healthy, youthful skin beneath. One ounce of metacized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is enough to make any discolored or spotted complexion clear, white and shiny soft. Its action is so gentle no injury is caused and the face shows no trace of its use. Burning, heat, irritating winds and dirt are such wrinkle-makers that the daily use of the following astringent-tonic lotion at this season is highly advisable. Powdered saffron, 1 oz., dissolved in witch hazel, 4 pint. Used as a face bath this is a splendid wrinkle remover and preventive. Adv.

FAMOUS 76th REGT. O. V. V. I. TO MEET HERE

Wednesday, September 17, is the date for the thirty-fifth annual reunion of the celebrated old Seventy-Sixth regiment, O. V. V. I., which will be held here in Memorial hall. Officers of the regiment, David Davis of Copeville and C. W. Hull of Newark, have issued a special request that Newark people remember the "old boys" with a display of the National colors on that day.

Comrades are coming for the event from considerable distances, north, east and west, and from as far south as points in Alabama. The annual reunion of this old regiment is a real event among the veterans, and they expect one of the best times ever, this year.

TAKE NO CHANCES IS "SAFETY FIRST" RULE OF B. & O.

A series of the most important rules in the safe operation of trains has been issued by the General Safety committee of the Baltimore and Ohio System and posted on bulletin boards for the benefit of employees in train service. The series of rules is embellished with the Safety emblem of the railroad company and reads as follows:

When necessary to flag be positive you go back far enough to absolutely protect your train. See that you have torpedoes, flag, and red and white lantern.

Do not kick couplers or attempt to adjust with your hand as cars come together.

Where it is necessary to walk on track form the habit of looking in both directions for approaching train. Step clear of all running tracks. Do not step off one track on to another. The noise of passing train often drowns the sound of the bell or whistle of approaching train.

Be especially careful in backing up or when cars are being pushed ahead of the engine. Have a man on first car or tank of engine.

Before going under car or engine for any purpose see that engineer and conductor know where you are.

Most of the fatal injuries would have been avoided had these rules, called to your special attention, been lived up to. See that new men are thoroughly familiar with them. The experienced men should give the new men special care. DO NOT TAKE CHANCES.

TAKE A BATH ONCE IN WHILE SAYS BULLETIN

The state of Ohio through the state board of health hopes to drive home several important facts pertaining to the health of the people through the liberal use of catch phrases and aphorisms.

The extensive traveling health exhibit which experts have been working on for weeks and which will be ready for an initial display at the state fair, will have many of these printed in bold letters on large signs.

After the state fair the exhibit will commence a general tour of the state.

Much money has been spent in preparing the various models. The exhibit will be one of the most complete in the United States. The aphorisms are particularly good. For example:

"Treat your body to an occasional bath. It may not be entitled to it but it will repay you with better service."

A fly in the milk may mean a member of the family in the grave. Babies are like plants—they can't live without plenty of sunlight and good air.

It is more important to brush your teeth than to wash your face in the morning.

There is less danger in vaccinating a person than in cutting his corn. Breathe through your nose and keep your mouth closed. The latter precaution may likewise keep you out of trouble.

Tuberculosis is catching. Anyone can catch it. No experience is necessary. Most sick towns do not know they are sick.

HOUSER AND HOLTZ NAMED ON COMMISSION

Will Provide Names for all Juries Until Next May When New Appointments are Made.

Common Pleas Judge T. B. Fulton on Thursday announced his appointment of C. L. V. Holtz of Newark and W. C. Houser of Utica as the new jury commissioners provided by recent legislation which limits membership in the jury commission from four to two. Both appointees were members of the old commission of four, whose terms automatically terminated with the new legislation.

Members of the old board who are retired were W. C. Hall of Newark and Joseph Axline of Summit Station.

The new commission is appointed to serve until next May, which is the time set by statute for the beginning of the commission's year. The next appointments will be for a full year.

The commission met early Thursday morning and began the day's task of cleaning out the jury wheel and filling it with 325 new names, from which veniremen for the September term of court will be drawn.

Provision of the statute demands that the jury names be locked in a box which only may be opened by two keys inserted simultaneously.

ITALY EXPECTS INTERVENTION.

(Associated Press Telegram) Rome, Aug. 28.—President Wilson's message to congress on the Mexican situation has produced a great impression in Italy owing to the large number of Italian settlers in Mexico.

Notwithstanding the expressions of the friendship of the United States for Mexico, the passage in the message recommending American citizens to leave Mexico is generally interpreted here as a forecast of American intervention in certain eventualities.

BERLIN SUPPORTS HUERTA.

(Associated Press Telegram) Berlin, Germany, Aug. 28.—Efforts have been made to induce Germany to give her active support to President Wilson's Mexican policy and to bring pressure to bear on Provisional President Huerta to retire and permit the holding of new elections. The German government, however, though desiring to afford the United States every facility for reaching a settlement has decided in view of its earlier recognition of Huerta and the attitude of the German colony in Mexico, which has sent a cablegram to the foreign office here applauding its recognition of Huerta and urging the government to use its influence at Washington to cause the United States to take a similar step. The government has not submitted this request to Washington.

LONDON'S VIEWS.

(Associated Press Telegram) London, Aug. 28.—In commenting on the Mexican situation today the Pall Mall Gazette says: "We fully understand that President Wilson's message is borne of the travail of his soul. He is a good and devout man earnestly desirous of furthering the ideals of peace and justice, but on him rests the responsibility for protecting not only the interests of the United States in Mexico but the lives of some thousands of American citizens who have settled there." "The golden dreamers of the Hague and of the capital shrink from recognizing a facto fatal to their theories. We shall see what Mexico has to teach them."

The Evening Standard says: "The United States, as we have all learned lately, distrusts amateurishness in spirits. It knows that if you want to win in any contest you must rely on the expert and take care that this expert knows all the details of his business. It is therefore rather surprising that the United States does not apply the same admirable principle to the conduct of its public affairs."

WAR SECRETARY IN WEST.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 28.—Secretary Garrison received a long telegram from President Wilson late last night in which the president told the secretary not to let anything interfere with his trip of inspection as planned. The remainder of the telegram was not made public, it is said to have taken up the matter of troops being kept along the border.

The secretary, after leaving Omaha, will visit forts at St. Paul, St. Louis, Indianapolis and Columbus in turn, reaching home September 1.

LIND GOES BACK.

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Aug. 28.—John Lind was early today instructed to return from Vera Cruz to Mexico City, after President Wilson had received a message from him described as "very optimistic." While administration officials were silent as to next move the general understanding was that a way appeared to be open to the further discussion of disputed points, such as the elimination of Huerta.

REINDEER ORDER PAYS GOOD BENEFIT

Utica and other neighboring towns will be well represented in the new Newark lodge of the Order of Reindeer.

It pays $100 death benefit, a $6 weekly sick and accident benefit for any thirteen weeks in a year, with free physician's services for members and their families.

The red, white, blue and gold emblem is a beauty. It's typical of the Reindeer ritual throughout. How does this sound:
Reindeer Creed:
If you have a flower to give, give it today. One throb of gladness is worth more to the living than a wealth of costly blooms laid, however tenderly above the dead. If you have a kindly visit to make, make it today. Just another step in and lay this quiet hand upon the longing heart and still forever its fret and pain and power of glad response. In the city of the dead, in the silence of the grave, hearts are never lonely any more. They do not heed or need.

PRE-CANCELLED STAMPS TO BE ON SALE SEPT. 16

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Aug. 28.—Postmaster General Burleson today signed an order which provides pre-cancelled postage stamps may be sold to the public on and after September 16. Pre-cancelled stamps have printed upon them the name of the postoffice before they are sold. Such stamps will be valid for postage on second, third and fourth class mail—newspapers and magazines mailed by the public, books and other printed matter and merchandise or parcel post matter. The stamps will be recognized only at the offices named on them. By the use of the pre-cancelled stamps not only will be transportation and delivery of mail bearing them be expedited greatly but it is estimated it will save labor in cancellation $250,000 a year.

"I have weighed carefully," said Postmaster General Burleson today, "the question as to whether the extension of the use of pre-cancelled stamps would result in loss to the postal revenues through the re-use or fraudulent use of such stamps. I am convinced that the loss would be negligible as compared with the great saving in expense and the increase in efficiency to be effected by the use of the stamps."

Pre-cancelled stamps, however, may not be used on letters, or sealed matter, which under the law must bear the date of mailing.

NEAR RIOT WHEN DADS ARGUE IN PROBATE COURT

Relative merits of their accused children developed as the point of contest between fathers in Juvenile court Wednesday afternoon, with the result that a near riot seemed imminent and had communicated the pugilistic instinct to the boys as well, when Juvenile Officer John Dwyer came to the rescue and quelled the uprising.

It all came about as a result of the arrest of three boys when Officer Dwyer unseated a number of petty thieves charged against them. They directed Dwyer to a lumber pile where the "swag" was hidden. It consisted of toys of various kinds, pencils, glue, goggles and a number of small articles. The boys were reprimanded severely by the court and released after they had accompanied Dwyer to the stores and returned the stolen goods.

CITY AND COUNTY

(Continued from Page 1.) rights and protects the public which has the privilege of the ground under certain restrictions, all of which in the opinion of the Board of Trade, are entirely reasonable. Officers of the Board of Trade have repeatedly said the organization would turn the property over to the city, or any state or nation for a public park, when assurance is given that it will be properly cared for. The lease provides for cancellation upon a year's notice to the Country club and upon payment to the club for certain expenditures made by the club.

Some contend the Board of Trade holds the title as trustee, others say it is an absolute title to the ground. Several lawyers who have looked into the matter say that no matter whether the Board holds the ground as trustee or otherwise, it had a perfect right to lease the property to the Country club and that no matter whether the title is disturbed, the lease will hold the full period of 20 years or until its conditions are complied with.

Members of the Board of Trade ask what will happen if the city and county should get possession? The county through the Agricultural Society controls Mountbailers Park, but the condition of Mountbailers Park can hardly be compared with the Country club ground. They ask, will the city and county have funds to keep up the ground in its present condition, or will it be allowed to get into the same condition as Mountbailers Park? The Board of Trade also points out the fact that the public has no privileges of the club ground and the club men say the club is by no means exclusive and that any citizen may become a member.

In an opinion recently given by Attorney General Hogan the city and county are found to be the rightful owners of the grounds now occupied by the Licking County Country club. The Attorney General is of the opinion that since the Board of Trade and other citizens interested have given no consideration for the property, the transfer of the land to them is not valid.

A number of citizens complained to the commissioners and council and asked that some steps be taken to open the grounds to the public in general.

The meeting Wednesday night was called to settle the title as the Board of Trade had been asked to deed the land to the city and council, following the decision by the Attorney General, and had failed to concede to the request of the city and county officials.

The body there assembled, city council representatives and the commissioners, voted that "the Board of Trade be notified to make a deed for the property to the city and county, and if at the expiration of five days, the deed is not given, the sheriff shall take charge of the property." The opinion expressed by the officials at the meeting was that the grounds should be made a public park and thrown open to all citizens of the county.

"The lease is absolutely good against the world," declared A. A. Stasel, who is attorney for the Country club, when asked Thursday concerning the lease of the club grounds given to the Country club by the Board of Trade. "Whatever the merits of the controversy between the Board of Trade and the county and city may be, or whatever the outcome of the controversy may be, it can in no wise affect the lease of the Country club."

The view held by members of the Country club is that the Board of Trade holds the property in trust; that the Board of Trade had an absolute right to lease the grounds and that the funds given by the county and city to the men who purchased the land for the state to reimburse them was merely a donation, there being no written record to show that the county and city have any actual claim on the property.

THAW MAY STAY IN JAIL UNTIL OCTOBER TERM

(Associated Press Telegram) Sherbrooke, Aug. 28.—The case of Harry K. Thaw, so far as Sherbrooke is concerned, enters temporary do-drums today. The court victory of his lawyers yesterday in quashing their own writ of habeas corpus and having him recommitted to jail, means either that he will remain there until tried by the King's bench, criminal side, in October or that New York state outbanned to date in legal skirmishes must make some new move looking to his liberation and seizure by the immigration authorities for deportation.

They were working today along two lines. William Travurse Jerome conferred with the attorney general of the Province of Quebec seeking some means of obtaining his authority of getting Thaw out of his cell. Other counsel for New York continued their efforts to persuade Alexis Dupuis, a magistrate or justice of the peace at Coaticook to withdraw the commitment which he issued after Thaw's arrest there twelve days ago and on which the fugitive is held in the Sherbrooke jail.

Most of Thaw's distinguished Canadian counsel left town last night to recuperate after the rigors of their court battles, that Thaw himself consent to stay in jail here rather than to take any chances of being deported either to Vermont, New Hampshire or New York by ill-advised liberty at this time, planned a quiet day in his cell.

BAND CONCERT AND FESTIVAL BIG SUCCESS

From a social standpoint at least the band concert and ice cream social given by the members of the Buckeye band on Wednesday evening was a success. Also it was a financial success. Thousands that thronged the park at West Main and Sixth streets, lingered throughout the entire program.

Seventy-five gallons of ice cream were disposed of and several small concession stands did a big business. The program given by the band under the direction of Prof. William Reynolds, presented variety enough to be entertaining to all. An interesting feature in connection with the program was the presence of Prof. J. Little of Columbus, but who formerly assisted in organizing the Buckeye band 20 years ago.

Prof. Little resided in Newark for a number of years and was a member of the band. On Wednesday evening accompanied by Mrs. Little and the two children they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simpson of West Main street and the professor spent the evening shaking hands with the members of the band and renewing old acquaintances.

The proceeds of the social will go toward the purchase of new uniforms, music and other equipment. It is to be hoped that the concerts can be made a weekly event, because their popularity with the people has been attested by the large numbers who attended.

IMPERATOR

line, the Imperator's owners, went on strike forty-eight hours before the vessel's arrival. Their places were filled by men from Brooklyn docks and the strikers were told that they would not be taken back. Officers of the line said, however, that they believed the strike was in no way connected with the fire. Somebody's carelessness, they thought, had been responsible.

The Imperator has suffered several mishaps, more or less serious, since her launching, May 2, 1912. Her maiden trip was postponed from month to month, first because she ran aground while on her way to Hamburg, and then because of trouble with her turbines. A benzine explosion occurred on board the vessel April 24, which caused the death of two men and serious injury to six others. Reports in May from Hamburg said the Imperator had been gravely damaged by vandals.

Seaman Stumpf, thought to be dead when he was found, was revived at a hospital. He is seriously injured.

Officials of the line estimated that the damage to the vessel itself would not be great. Great quantities of supplies were made useless, however, by the flames, smoke and water. Nearly 2,000,000 gallons of water was poured in on the fire. The company announced that the ship would sail Saturday as scheduled and that the damage would be repaired, so far as possible, at sea.
